

SHORT BIOGRAPHY

Nađa Dornik was born on 21 June 2000 in Belgrade. She always proudly emphasizes that she was born on World Day of Music. Nađa plays two instruments – piano and harp. She attends 1st grade of Secondary Music School “Mokranjac“ in Belgrade, module ‘Piano’, in the class of Zeljka Vorkapic. Besides that, Nađa attends 1st grade of Secondary Music School “Mokranjac“ in Belgrade, module ‘Harp’, in the class of Dijana Sretenović. She is also a member of Children’s Philharmonic Orchestra “Deca deci“, in which she plays both instruments. Furthermore, Nađa is a member of Children’s Choir “Horislavci“ in the National Theatre in Belgrade. Since the age of eight she has regularly performed with the choir in various operas in the Theatre, some of which include ‘Verter’, ‘Carmen’, ‘Boemi’, and ‘Pajaci’.

Nađa has participated in numerous international and national competitions and won the following prizes:

2013 International harp competition “Suoni d’Arpa” in Salsomaggiore Terme, Italy

HARP- First prize

2013 International harp competition “Petar Konjovic” , Belgrade

HARP- First prize

2013 11th International Russian Rotary Children Music Competition

HARP- participated in the Semifinals

2012 Competition of Serbian Music Talents, Sremski Karlovci

HARP – Laureate

2012 Republic Competition of Students from Music and Ballet Schools from Serbia

HARP – First prize

2011 Competition of Serbian Music Talents, Sremski Karlovci

HARP – Laureate

2011 Republic Competition of Students from Music and Ballet Schools from Serbia

HARP First prize (100 points)

2011 Finals for the Prize ‘Gvarnerius’ (‘Music Talents up to age 24’) - HARP

2010 Republic Competition of Students from Music and Ballet Schools from Serbia

HARP - Laureate

2011 International Competition of Young Pianists “Memorijal Vojislav Vučković“ , Belgrade

PIANO - Laureate

2009 International Competition of Young Pianists “Memorijal Vojislav Vučković“ , Belgrade

PIANO – First prize