

Lyubomir DENEV

Born Sept. 12th 1951 in Vidin - Bulgaria

1971 - Graduate High school of Music in Sofia (the percussion class under prof. D. Paliev)

1979 - State Musical Academy in Sofia - majoring orchestra conducting under prof. Konstantin Iliev

1980 - Conductor's course in Siena (It) under Fr.Ferrara

1981 - Conductor's course for opera and operetta under Ed. Dawns in Hilversum (Hol)

1995 - Course in composition under prof. Anatol Vieru (in Rousse - Bg)

1979 - 86 - Conductor at the State Musical Theater - Sofia

From 1986 - freelance composer and conductor

Between 2002 and 2006

works as arranger for the Big Band of Bulgarian National Radio

Present occupation - freelance composer

Participation in international festivals and concerts as a jazz-pianist in Chechia, Slovakia, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Poland, Romania, Germany, Portugal, France, USA, Holland, Norway.

Music by L. Denev was performed in many countries of Europe, in Mexico, India, Russia, USA and Japan.

Other international activities include a Premiere in Paris (May 1993) of the musical "The Law of the Jungle" (on R. Kiplings book)

Tour in Cairo with the musical "Love's Labors lost" (on Shakespeares comedy)

(1989) - performed by Bulgarian Chamber Opera Blagoevgrad

Bulgarian National TV produced 2 films, dedicated to L. Denevs activity:

The Music I Make (Dec. 2000) and Smart Village (Aug. 2005)

Lyubomir Denev is member of the Union of Bulgarian composers

And the Society for New Music Bulgarian Section of ISCM

2008-2009 the composer was invited for a one-year residency at the International Culture Center Villa Concordia in Bamberg - Germany, as stipendiant of the Bawarian Ministry of culture