

Paata Beridze was born on September 10, 1988 in Tbilisi, Georgia. Since 2004 he has been playing trumpet in Leri Chechelashvili's group at the V. Sarajishvili Tbilisi State Conservatoire's experimental music collage.

In 2005-2008 he studied at the Z. Paliashvili N I Central Musical School. Simultaneously he studied at Tbilisi Music College, the faculty of Arts, he is awarded with specialized diploma in wind instruments and concertmaster.

In 2008 he enrolled in the V. Sarajishvili Tbilisi State Conservatoire, the faculty of Orchestral Winds and Percussion, - specialization trumpet. Since this period he has been actively involved in various competitions and festivals, he has played the solo concerts as well as first trumpet with the Orchestra of Conservatoire.

In 2010 he participated in the master courses of "Winter Academy" in Tchiatura, where he successfully performed Shostakovich Piano Concert N I. In the same time, he was invited to work in the Marjanishvili and Royal District Theatres to accompany spectacles with music.

In 2012 he was selected to be the concertmaster of the festival "Melodies of Peace" which was open throughout the Caucasus and the participant of the international festival "Travelling Notes"; he played within the project Baroque Week and with Revaz Kiknadze took part in the workshops of improvising the modern classic of Jonas Kohler Maximilian Marcoll and Ernesto Molinari.

On May 5th of 2012 he gave the solo concert in the Conservatoire Small Hall, which was exceptional for its original repertoire –covering the wide range of epochs. Apart from creative activities, he was an active member of the Faculty Committee of V. Sarajishvili Tbilisi State Conservatoire and Student Self Government. He also worked as a PR manager in "Simphonieta of Georgia" – Tbilisi State Chamber Orchestra.

He was attended at the master classes of Guido Segers, Wolfgang Gugenberger, Wolfgang Haag, Frits Damrow and Mauro Maur. He regularly participates in various classical and jazz concerts, performing solo participant as well as member of bands and orchestras.

Paata Beridze actively collaborates with the radio "MUZA".